

VAN GOGH HOUSE

Venue Hire Brochure 2020

SAN MEI GALLERY

VAN GOGH HOUSE

“I now have a room,
as I’ve long been wishing...”

- Vincent van Gogh, London, 1873

The house in Stockwell where Vincent van Gogh lived for a year is a local heritage site and a venue for exhibitions and artists’ residencies, with a mission of enabling artists to make a living in their lifetimes.

The Georgian terrace house was lovingly renovated by architect Livia Wang according to William Morris’ principles of ‘conservation, not restoration’, and retains many of its original features as well as a light-filled modern kitchen extension.

A special place with a sense of history and atmosphere, the various rooms in the house and its thoughtfully planted garden can play host to a wide range of small events, from meetings to product launches to private dinners.

ROOMS

Van Gogh House, is laid out as a residential house. It has several spaces that can be hired together or separately including:

Gallery
Kitchen
Garden
Ursula Loyer's Room
Van Gogh's Room

The Van Gogh House's rooms are perfect for

Canapé receptions
Private dinners
Marriage Proposals
Product and book launches
Presentations
Workshops
Away-days
Meetings
Film and photography shoots

We do not hire Van Gogh House for art exhibitions

GALLERY

The Gallery comprises of the double reception room on the ground floor. In Van Gogh's time, his landlady, Ursula Loyer, ran a school in the street-facing half of this room. Now acting as an exhibition space, this space may come complete with art on the walls.
